Universal Objections & Responses

"We already have a system."	Most aren't missing a system — they're missing a connected view. How long does it take to pull a full workforce picture today? That delay is the real cost.
"SAP is too complex / expensive."	SF is modular — start where it makes sense. What does fragmented, reactive HR planning cost you annually in bad hires and missed targets?
"Happy with current vendor."	Good to hear. Where are you still seeing gaps — operations, employee experience, or manager visibility? Most customers have at least one open challenge.
"No budget right now."	When is your next planning cycle? I can make sure you have the right data and a business case tailored to your context before that window opens.
"SAP takes too long to implement."	We have packaged rapid deployments — customers go live in weeks. What is your ideal timeline? I can show you a reference that matches it.
"SAP is a bloated ERP company."	Enterprise companies need HR connected to Finance, Supply Chain, and Operations. Only SAP delivers this — that's the Intelligent Enterprise.
"SF always needs partners for T&A.;"	SF has a fully functional T&A; module. For complex scheduling we offer Workforce Software — best-of-breed, fully SAP-supported. Workday uses the same approach.
"Each SF customer is on a different version."	All SAP SuccessFactors customers are on the same version. Workday's "One Community" is widely reported by users as a "waste of time".
